1. You will see the number of free ads and regular ads you have
2. First you have to select your ad type, this will either be “sell”, “request”, or “rent”.
3. Then you select your category, examples are “cardiology equipment”, “x-ray machines”, “medical furniture”, and “Dentals”.
4. You select your sub category from the list

Product Information page

Here you Enter the product name, price and description

The screenshot shows the left-hand section of a product information form. At the top, it displays 'Selected Category' with a breadcrumb trail: 'DENTAL > Dental Equipment > Change Category'. Below this is a 'Product Information' section. It includes a 'Title' input field, a 'Pricing' section with radio buttons for 'Price', 'Price Range', and 'Disabled', a 'Price Type' dropdown menu set to 'Fixed', and a 'Price ($)' input field. The 'Description' section features a rich text editor with a toolbar containing options for paragraph, bold, italic, bulleted list, numbered list, indent, outdent, link, unlink, and media. A 'Visual' tab is selected. At the bottom left, a 'Features' section is partially visible.

You will also upload images and if you want you can share a YouTube link for the product

The screenshot shows the right-hand section of the product information form. It features a 'Features' section with a 'Features List' text area and a small icon in the bottom right corner. Below this is an 'Images' section with a large drop zone containing the text 'Drop files here to add them.' and a 'Browse files ...' button. A red-bordered box provides guidelines: 'Recommended Image size to (870x493)px', 'Image maximum size 3 MB.', 'Allowed Image type (png, jpg, jpeg).', and 'You can upload up to 5 Images.'. At the bottom, there is a 'Video URL' section with a text input field and the instruction 'Only YouTube & Vimeo URL'.
